| 2026-055 | Call to Order | A quorum being present, Mayor Argue called the meeting to order at 1:32 p.m. |
| 2026-056 | Waiver | That the waiver of notice – special meeting was signed by all members of council prior to the commencement of the meeting. |
| 2026-057 | Agenda | Court/Ganshorn That the agenda be adopted as amended. |
| 2026-058 | Decision | Ganshorn/Court Be it resolved that Council of the Resort Village of Sunset Cove (the municipality) has considered the request, received by email on April 10, 2026 from the owners of 1 Mountain Drive, to temporarily remove the remedial work done to date as per the Order to Remedy issued to them on October 10, 2025 for reasons detailed in the email. The decision of Council is to decline this request for reasons to be communicated separately to the owner. Be it further resolved that the owners of 1 Mountain Drive must submit their proposed revised remedial design for Council’s consideration no later than April 30, 2026. Such design shall be approved by a Professional Engineer, licensed to practice in the Province of Saskatchewan, with the relevant experience applicable to the scope of the remedial work and include appropriate considerations for drainage. The plan shall be accompanied by an amended Development Permit Application. Be it further resolved that, if the revised design is not received by Council by the above deadline, the original requirements of the Order to Remedy dated October 10, 2025 that were put on hold on November 14, 2025, shall resume with the required work to be completed as per the Order to Remedy with a revised deadline of June 15, 2026. |
